Personal Details and Consent for Registration

Terms and Conditions

I understand that:

- 1) The information that may be held by the Register includes: name, date of birth, postal address, email address, type of job, date of any Q Fever vaccination administered, date and results of any Q Fever tests performed, date of laboratory confirmation of any diagnosis of Q Fever disease.
- 2) I will be issued with an electronic Q Fever report which includes my name, date of birth, Q Fever Register Number, Q Fever testing dates and results, and Q Fever immune status and/or vaccination details. I will also have an opportunity to correct any errors.
- 3) Employers (meat processors) will be able to access information on this form, and my Q Fever screening test results and Q Fever vaccination details, held by the Register for the purpose of confirming my immune status.
 - Employers can only access my information if they know my full name, date of birth and Register Number.
 - Employers can only find my Register Number if:
 - i) I tell them, or
 - ii) They electronically submit the information in this consent form to the Register using the Internet.
- 4) If I have been previously tested or vaccinated, my employer or doctor may contact the site at which the screening/vaccination took place and request copies of my relevant medical records.
- 5) The information on this form, and my Q Fever screening test results and Q Fever vaccination details, will be either submitted to the Register by my current employer or medical clinic (after which the completed forms will be lodged with the Register) or sent by me directly to the Register. Information may be submitted, and my details accessed, over the Internet. Secure connections and passwords ensure that only authorised persons are able to submit information to or access information from the Register. Copies of all personal documentation sent to the Register will be kept securely.
- 6) The information on this form, and my Q Fever screening test results and Q Fever vaccination details, is being collected for the Register on behalf of AMPC by AUS-MEAT and may be transferred to a person or body outside the State or Territory in which you are located. I have a right to request access to any of my information that is held by AUS-MEAT from time to time.
- 7) If I wish to know what details are recorded in the Register, my Register Number, to request another Q Fever report, or correct errors in or update the Register, I may call the Q Fever Register Help-Line. I must identify myself using my name, date of birth, and answer the Security Question selected on this form.
- 8) I may request for my details to be permanently removed from the Register at any time by ringing the Register Help-Line.
- 9) Summary information including the total number of people in the Register that have been tested, vaccinated or diagnosed may be released publicly for the purpose of monitoring the disease, but such information will not contain the names or details of individual persons.
- 10) De-identified information in the Register may be used for the purpose of research into Q fever, subject to clearance by an Ethics Committee.
- 11) My personal information will not be released or sold for any commercial or marketing purpose. No information will be released to any government authorities except in the following circumstances:
 - where a government authority acts as a registered screening and vaccination service provider, or
 - where there are reasonable grounds to believe that disclosure is necessary to prevent a threat to life or health.

Information for Employers and Medical Practitioners

Please provide a copy of this form to all employees/patients involved in Q Fever screening and vaccination programs, along with a copy of the Fact Sheet - Q Fever and the Australian Q Fever Register, and invite them to participate in the Register.

Note that a fully completed and signed consent form is required for submission of information to the Register, along with evidence of testing and vaccination status.

Detailed instructions for how to submit completed paperwork to the Register can be found on the Register website or by calling the Register Help Line. Please do not submit forms more than once.

More information is available on the web site or by contacting the Register Help Line.
